Do you wish to undertake this award part-time?
---	--

We provide flexible research career opportunities. If you're applying for funding, you can request flexible and part-time working. This could be to help you manage family commitments or if you have individual needs which make undertaking an award full time challenging.

We always try to accommodate requests, as long as your employing organisation agrees to the working arrangement. Your Grants Adviser will contact you to acknowledge receipt of your application after the scheme application deadline; you should discuss any flexible working plans with them as early as possible. If you have any questions before you apply, please contact our Grants Information Desk.

Career contributions What are your most important research-related contributions? These may be from any stage of your research career. State what each contribution was, when it came about, why you think it is important and what impact it has had. Examples include publications, patents and impacts on policy. (350 words max.)

Research outputs List up to 20 of your most significant research outputs, ensuring that at least five of these are from the last five years. For 10 of these outputs, provide a statement describing their significance and your contribution (up to 50 words per output).
Research outputs may include (but are not limited to): <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Peer-reviewed publications and preprints</li><li>• Datasets, software and research materials</li><li>• Inventions, patents and commercial activity</li></ul>
For original research publications indicate those arising from Wellcome-funded grants in bold , and provide the PubMed Central ID (PMCID) reference for each of these. Please refer to guidance notes.
Please give citation in full, including title of paper and all authors*. Citations to preprints should state "Preprint", the repository name and the articles persistent identifier (e.g DOI).
(*All authors, unless more than 10, in which case please use 'et al', ensuring that your position as author remains clear.)

You should include here systematic reviews (e.g. Cochrane Reviews) and meta analyses, but exclude abstracts and literature reviews. We encourage the inclusion of articles published via open research publishing platforms, such as Wellcome Open Research, providing they have passed peer review.

Preprints, i.e. complete manuscripts that have been submitted to a preprint repository or service (e.g. bioRxiv, PeerJ Preprints, arXiv, SocArXiv or PsyArXiv), can be included only if they have a permanent identifier such as a DOI or arXiv identifier.

How many peer-reviewed publications have you authored/co-authored? Include systematic reviews and meta analyses but exclude abstracts and literature reviews.
---	--

We encourage you to include articles published on open research publishing platforms, such as Wellcome Open Research, providing they have passed peer review.

Current and recent research funding (including Wellcome grants)

List all research funding you have held in the last five years and any key funding before then.

List the most recent first. State the name of the funder, name(s) of grantholder(s), title of the project, total amount awarded (and how much of this you received), your role in the project, and the start and end dates. State the percentage of your time spent on the research; if the grant is active state the number of hours per week that you spend on the research.

Include details of any recurrent or core funding you have held. Explain your role in obtaining the funding. For example, whether you held them in your own right as lead applicant, coapplicant, or as part of a consortium.

We look at your success in getting research funding when we assess your track record. We also want to understand how this proposal is distinct from other funding you hold.
